Brain & Behaviour Lab

Student Researcher Application Form

Please email completed application to Dr. Jenni Karl at jkarl@tru.ca.

Project Applying for:
Position Applying for:
Term Applying for:
Student Name:
Year of Study:
Student Number:
Major:
Email Address:
Unofficial transcript attached, Yes or No?:
Resume or CV attached, Yes or No?:
Please describe any experience or skills that you possess that will enable y this position.	ou to be successful in
2) Please describe how you will demonstrate professionalism, attention-to-deta organizational skills in this position.	ail, reliability, and

3)	How do you hope to leverage the experience or skills that you will gain from this position to help you achieve your graduation and/or career goals?
4)	What is your current school and/or work schedule during the term of the position that you are applying for? How many hours will you have each week to dedicate to this position?
5)	Please provide the name and email address of at least one TRU faculty member that I could speak to regarding your application.
6)	Optional: Is there anything further about your application that you would like to explain? (E.g., comment on any special circumstances that may have impacted your academic career; any requirements for accommodations during the interview process and/or during employment; ways in which you would support a diverse and inclusive research environment.)